New Business: (Ruiz) Dylan-Marie Antoine has resigned as Chapter Chair. Araceli Ruiz to act as Chair until next election. Discussed holding future meetings in one centralized location instead of switching locations each month. Group agreed and will look at hosting future meetings at either Citrus Tower or Janet Goeske Center. Discussed centerpiece for T-Now Luncheon which will be held January 17, 2020.

Event Recaps: (Ruiz) Distributed PowerPoint of the Riverside TNow 10/10 Bus Tour. Had approximately 12 attendees tour RTA’s bus yard and take a bus ride to Downtown Disney for lunch. Discussed possibility of doing similar event in 2020. (Ustation) AltCar Expo was held 10/16/19 at Riverside Convention Center. Had approximately 125 attendees. Event included speakers, alternative transportation displays and test drives.

Legislative Updates: (Dill) Currently out of session. Distributed flyer on Holiday Reception and Book Drive to be held on December 20, 2019. (Melendrez) New city council starting December 3, 2019. Will be decision of new council whether they want to consider new scooter plan/policy for Riverside. (Ruiz) Distributed Supervisor Jeffries’ newsletter detailing projects such as proposed Good Neighbor Policy, new traffic signals and local road improvements.

Ridership Reports/Updates: (Ustation) Overall ridership down 1% in October. UCR’s ridership up 18%.

Announcements: (Ustation) RTA will run free shuttles during Festival of Lights on Friday and Saturday evenings that run from Riverside Downtown Metrolink Station to festival in downtown Riverside. (Krick) Cross Country CIF Finals to be held in Riverside weekend of November 23rd off Columbia Ave. and Orange St. (Morrison) Youth Innovation Center’s ribbon cutting event to take place November 21st located at Arlington Park.
